Re: Request dated January 28, 1999, Chem-Fab Site, Doylestown, PA

Dear Mr. Chelius:

In response to the questions submitted in the above:

1. The Broad Street Trust, P.O. Box 180, Carversville, PA 18913-0180.
2. The Broad Street Trust is a trust.
3. There are no principals, shareholders, partners, or investors of the trust.
4. The Broad Street Trust has only a current legal relationship with Chem-Fab, Corp., but not with Manfred DeRewal, Jr., Manfred DeRewal, Sr., or Chem Fab, Inc. The Broad Street Trust has no business relationship, nor has it had a business relationship, with Manfred DeRewal, Jr., Manfred DeRewal, Sr., or Chem Fab, Inc.
5. The Broad Street Trust holds a $200,000 mortgage of record against the subject real property situate at 300 N. Broad Street, Doylestown, Bucks County, PA.

In addition to the above answers, please allow me to add that there is no person with an interest in or who is benefited by The Broad Street Trust which has had, or does have, any relationship, direct or indirect, to or with Manfred DeRewal, Jr., Manfred DeRewal, Sr., Chem Fab, Inc., or Chem-Fab, Corp. Please note my distinction regarding the entities, Chem Fab, Inc. and Chem-Fab, Corp., for I believe that the correct, subject corporate entity is Chem-Fab, Corp., and not Chem Fab, Inc., and my answers above are meant to refer to the former owner, Chem-Fab, Corp. I have added this paragraph as a supplement to the answers to your request in the hope of conveying a clear representation that there is no "tie-in" between the former owners, and any one connected in any way with The Broad Street Trust, except for their above-disclosed legal relationship which is of public record.

I note your use of this term, Chem-Fab Superfund Site. I was not aware that the subject site was or is on the NPL. Please advise.

Yours truly,

Heywood Eric Becker
